RAIN, HAIL, WIND SWEEP OVER FOUR SOUTHERN STATES

Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas Sustain Loss

Crops, Tobacco Beds and Fruit Injured.

RIVER INTERESTS SUFFER.

New Orleans, April 16.—Jackson, capitol of Mississippi, is completely cut off today. Wires are down as the result of a storm which swept through Mississippi, Tennessee and part of Arkansas and Kentucky. It is believed Jackson suffered greatly.

Hardly a railroad escaped. There were several washouts yesterday. The damage to crops is immense. It is reported that thousands of acres of cotton are inundated and many farms flooded. It is said thousands of cattle are destroyed. All bridges are washed out.

The second storm swept over Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Tennessee this morning. Several deaths are reported and enormous damage. Wire communication at Jackson is partly restored. Reports say that while the cyclone did enormous property damage, no lives were lost there. Three were killed in outlying districts. There is fear that later reports will bring the total higher. Reports from the Louisiana coast say several parties of fishermen are missing. It is feared some are lost. The property damage is large. The storm has subsided.

Freight Ditched.

Princeton, Ky., April 16. (Special)—A freight train on the Evansville division of the Illinois Central is in the ditch at Cider as the result of a washout. Nobody was killed or injured. There was heavy damage by the storm.

Bridge Washed Out.

Hard Money, Ky., April 16. (Special)—The bridge over Can creek was washed out and many miles of fence destroyed by the flood last night.

In Carlisle County.

Bardwell, Ky., April 16. (Special)—No damage was done in Bardwell and vicinity last night by the storm. There was a heavy rain, but no hail. Hall is reported in Cunningham, which is between Bardwell and Paducah. Railroads are running and general traffic is not interfered with seriously by the swollen creeks. Yesterday lightning struck the stock barn of Newton Tramble and it was completely destroyed by fire. No stock was in the barn at the time, however.

At Murray.

Murray, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Murray was visited last night by a heavy rain, but no hail fell. The roads were washed considerably, but no serious damage is reported. All of the creeks are swollen.

Lightning's Work.

Brookport, Ill., April 16. (Special)—Lightning struck the barn of Walter Medaker, north of Brookport, last night and completely destroyed it. Most of the stock was removed from the barn, but implements and hay were destroyed.

Local Damage.

In the county the damage was heavy to the bridges. John Thompson, county road supervisor, estimates that it will take about $1,500 to replace the bridges. About a dozen bridges were swept away by the water last night, and this morning some were on roads and others in fields. The suspension bridge over Little Massac creek was washed into the road, while numerous smaller bridges were misplaced. Some of the bridges are old, and probably will have to be replaced with new bridges.

In the vicinity of Eden's hill the downpour of rain seems to have been the heaviest. Land was inundated that the oldest inhabitants could not remember of ever being covered with water. The hill fell heavy, and in many homes window panes were broken by the large fall stones. Trees were stripped of the green foliage, and this morning it was possible to rake up leaves as in the fall of the year.

Serious damage was done to tender garden produce. Marketers lost much glass, which was used to protect tender plants. The hail fell in such quantities as to crash through the glass. George Beyer, a gardener

Revenue Officers and Parent on Trail of Ed Watson, Who Elopés With Delia Smith From Dycusburg

Couple, Who Were Once Caught Here, Are Supposed to be in Memphis—Night Rider Suits.

Dycusburg, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Revenue officers and an irate parent are in pursuit of Ed Watson, supposed to be a married man, and Delia Smith, the pretty young daughter of William Smith, a prosperous farmer of this place. They are supposed to be in Memphis. Watson left several days ago, his absence being discovered when Deputy United States Marshal Elwood Neel, of Paducah, came here with a warrant for him. The girl boarded a train at Kuttawa two days ago. Watson is also wanted in Missouri, it is said, where he is supposed to have a wife and two children.

The couple was caught in Paducah several weeks ago. The girl when they got off the boat eluded her father on Broadway and caught a Union station car on which Watson already had a seat. They made their way to the station, but were re-captured about two minutes before they would have gotten away on a train. The girl declared then she would go with Watson. The girl's father is a man of considerable prominence in his home community.

Suit May Be Settled.

Eddyville, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Some of the defendants named in Laura Toomey's amended petition for damages have settled. The new defendants, among whom is former County Attorney Ward Headley, of Caldwell county, are named in an amended petition that has been filed in the federal court by Mrs. Laura Toomey, who is suing for damages to the extent of $51,000 for alleged night rider raids at her home in Eddyville over a year ago. The new named defendants are: Ward Headley, A. C. Rakey, E. L. Gresham, Elwood Gresham, S. R. Gien, George C. Crumbaugh, Willis Crumbaugh, R. A. Sexton, W. S. Dycus and Lee Hayes.

The night rider suits will come up for trial Monday morning when federal court will be convened at Paducah by Judge Walter Evans, of Louisville. They were continued from the last term. Mrs. Toomey, who is the daughter of Judge C. W. Rucker, of Eddyville, Lyon county, is now a resident of Metropolis, Ill. The attorneys for her are Krone, Durrell and Fleece.

At Kuttawa.

Kuttawa, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Boulders were washed down the steep hills surrounding Kuttawa last night by heavy rains, and in many places the streets are blocked. It was the heaviest rain in the memory of the oldest inhabitants. The water did considerable damage.

Thoroughbreds Killed

Louisville, Ky., April 16. (Special)—During the storm this morning lightning killed three thoroughbreds at Churchill Downs.

FORMER SHERIFF HOLLAND IS DEAD

WILL BE BURIED TOMORROW AFTERNOON IN ODD FELLOWS CEMETERY.

Former Sheriff W. R. Holland, better known as Col. Dick Holland, died last night at 11 o'clock at his home, 2225 Jefferson street, after a lingering illness. He recently returned from Hot Springs, where he went in the hope of benefiting his health. He was born in Christian county 59 years ago, but spent most of his life in McCracken county, which he served as sheriff and sheriff's deputy. He was one of the best known and most popular men in the county. Besides his wife, he leaves the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. J. A. Young, Paducah; Mrs. M. C. Graham, Lebanon; Mr. T. E. Holland, of Paducah, and D. S. Holland, of Fairport.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, the Rev. M. E. Dodd, officiating. The burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery near McHenry church, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Following are the pallbearers: J. C. Piper, S. G. Givens, E. M. Willis, E. G. Boone, J. E. Rogers and James Glauber.

Practically isolated from the world as far as railroad traffic is concerned, they got off the boat eluded her father on Broadway and caught a Union station car on which Watson already had a seat. They made their way to the station, but were re-captured about two minutes before they would have gotten away on a train. The girl declared then she would go with Watson. Passengers Storm Bound.

Calvert City, Ky., April 16. (Special)—2:15 o'clock—Many hours late fast passenger train No. 103 of the Illinois Central from Louisville arrived here this afternoon and probably will not reach Paducah until many hours owing to the washout of the concrete bridge at Little Cypress. The trip has been filled with exciting incidents as several miles of track were washed out, and it was only after strenuous efforts that the train reached Calvert City.

A substitute agent whose name could not be learned at Daniel Boone, a small station west of Dawson Springs, probably saved the lives of many passengers early this morning when he stood out in the storm over an hour to flag the fast passenger train. He discovered that the track and roadbed was washed away, and succeeded in flagging the train, despite the fact that the storm was raging.

In Police Court.

London, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Thieves blew the postoffice safe and got $2,000.

Requisition Issued

Frankfort, Ky., April 16. (Special)—Governor Cox has issued a requisition on Pennsylvania for the return to Paducah of Armond Devilliers on the charge of grand larceny from his wife, a vaudeville performer. He is under arrest at Philadelphia.

Detective Moore has gone after him.

BACKWATER DRIVES OUT OCCUPANTS OF HOUSES

Backwater on South Ninth street between Norton and Caldwell streets forced occupants of houses to desert their abodes last night. The water entered the houses and covered the floors to a depth of several inches. An old wooden sewer on Caldwell street proved inadequate to carry off the water, and the street resembled a canal.

INSTALLATION OF DR. H. W. BURWELL BY PRESBYTERY

Will Occupy Both Services at First Presbyterian Tomorrow.

Paducah Presbytery Organized This Morning.

SERMON BY DR. C. N. WHARTON.

The Paducah Presbytery of the Presbyterian church today examined and accepted Dr. H. W. Burwell as pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Seventh and Jefferson street. The examination was oral and conducted by the Rev. Thomas Cummings, of Henderson. The questions dealt with theology and government of the Presbyterian church.

Tomorrow morning at 10:45 o'clock Dr. Burwell will be ordained and installed as pastor of the church in regular form. The Rev. Cummings will fill the pulpit.

The Presbytery convened last night at 7:45 o'clock, the Rev. C. N. Wharton, of Morganfield, delivering the opening sermon. On account of the inclement weather and the small attendance the business of electing a moderator was postponed until 9 o'clock this morning when the Presbytery met again. A recess was taken at 12:30 o'clock until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The meeting will be adjourned at 5 o'clock tonight when a Home Mission session will be convened.

H. K. Wood, of Marion, was elected moderator this morning after the session had been called together by Dr. Wharton. The next business was the election of C. H. Skinner, of Morganfield, as temporary clerk. He took the place of the Rev. L. Humphreys, of Henderson, the stated clerk of the assembly. The delegates and ministers were voted and the Rev. Cummings was chosen to examine Dr. Burwell. The examination was brief. A letter of admission to the presbytery from the New Orleans, La., Presbytery was received as credentials from the new pastor. An order was then made for Dr. Burwell's installation tomorrow morning. Dr. Cummings will preside at the service and deliver the sermon, having charge of all work. His subject will be "Faith."

At the conclusion of the session this morning Dr. Burwell was given authority of an evangelist in bringing members of the disbanded Second Presbyterian church into the First church. This was done at his own request. Dr. Burwell said since the Second church disbanded eight years ago many members could not give letters from the church as the records could not be found. He said he believes there are over 100 people that could be brought into the First church in this manner, and efforts will be made to locate them and admit them with a letter from the Presbytery. It will not be necessary for a second confession.

Other business transacted this morning was of a routine nature and of little public significance. One important report read by Dr. Wharton, of Morganfield, was that relating to foreign missions. The report showed a decided increase in the donations from the different churches.

This afternoon commissioners to the synod at Louisville will be elected. All the delegates and ministers in attendance today were the guests of Dr. Burwell at the noon hour meal at the church Manse adjoining the church.

It was announced in the session this morning that the Rev. George F. Mason, of Marion, would preach at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and the Rev. L. Humphreys will preach at the same hour at the Broadway Methodist church.

Tonight the Rev. L. O. Spencer will deliver the charge to the pastor and the Rev. Humphreys will deliver the charge to the congregation.

Delegates in attendance are: C. H. Skinner, of Morganfield; James Campbell, Sr., of Paducah; C. W. Woodbridge, of Henderson; H. K. Wood, of Marion and the Rev. Thomas Cummings, of Henderson; C. H. Wharton, of Morganfield and L. Humphreys, of Henderson. Others in attendance are the Rev. George F. Mason, of Marion and Burrell Boggs, one of the corresponding members of the Presbytery from Louisville. He is a mountain missionary.

We are submissive in the hands of God?

This vital question was asked his congregation last night at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. C. N. Wharton, of Morganfield, Ky., acting moderator, who delivered the charge to the congregation.

Why Do You Do It?

Why do you buy cheap whiskey bottled in bond only 4 years old and pay $1.00 per quart, when you can buy Ragan's Special, made in spring 1903, 7 years old, at $1.25 per quart? A determined heart will not be counseled.—Spanish.

Have you ever observed how little, anyone who habitually prefeces his remarks with "listen", has to say worth listening to?

Predigested science and highly seasoned fiction are both bad for the mental health, and neither can be offset by Proverb pills. The one calls for no responsive effort and the other excites an unnatural craving.

Credit should not be withheld from the teachers and pupils of the colored schools for the efforts they have put forth in their desire for self-enlightenment, and the manner in which their own race has responded to their calls. The two schools have raised over $600 this year for improving their quarters, installing libraries and purchasing pianos. The Lincoln High school raised in five weeks $121 to be used for a physical and chemical laboratory, which, supplemented by the $100 the school board gives them, will afford them a place, where they may put into practice the theories they study in their classes. The ultimate fate of any race is in its own hands. The real race problem is industrial, and will be solved when the colored man makes a place for himself in the industrial system, contributing to the wealth production of the country; and he must make that place for himself; the white man cannot make it for him and put him in it.

AUSTRIAN SPORTS.

Has the trailing of lions, tigers and elephants in Africa satisfied the appetite of Colonel Roosevelt for excitement, and has the presence of the women of his family tempered his zest for sport? We cannot believe that this mighty hunter has suddenly become timid; yet today he refused the invitation of Frau Josef to hunt woodpeckers in the imperial park. Why should shrink from an encounter with the feathered fauna of Europe, after facing the hairy game of darkest Africa we cannot understand, especially since royal huntsmen are guarded by regiments of foot and horse soldiers. Possibly in the protecting shade of the tropical jungle the colonel was not as brave as he pretended, and he feared his trembling might be witnessed by the brave emperor and his warriors hosts when he stood face to face with his first woodpecker, pitting the accuracy of his aim against the natural ferocity of the wild bird. We cannot tell; but we can surmise wonderful treats in store for other great Americans, when they visit Austria and meet the emperor. We can see Commander Peary heading an expedition in the royal park in search of spring beauties and trailing arbutus; Wilbur Wright being swung in a hammock by a minion of the royal household, and J. Pierpont Morgan with pulse beating high, risking a nickel ante at auction penicile.

But why was Teddy too busy to hunt woodpeckers? We demand a satisfactory answer before we welcome him home.

FOUNDATIONS.

Let us be up-to-date in everything! This is the cry of the day; the sound that rises above the tumult of the mad scramble for the vanities of an hour; that dies out in a note of despair, which, unfortunately, is drowned by the tumult and the same old cry from new throats.

We want our town to be up-to-date. How many express the wish that the business of their home town be established on enduring foundations of honest values and fair dealing, that its products may add to the world's wealth and the sum of human happiness; that its public funds be properly administered; that the burden of taxation be equitably distributed; that the comfort and health of its inhabitants be intelligently secured and protected? One may think that these things go without saying, but they do not. We emphasize too much the ephemeral, we strain after something other than permanence, We are beginning to feel the lack of this element in our work; but we do not yet apprehend it.

Our ethics is wrong. We are heedless of our foundations. A corner lot is sold for a thousand dollars a front foot; a building is erected on it at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars; the building is up-to-date, an ornament to the city; but do we stop to think that only the value of the real estate under it made the skyscraper a financial possibility; and that the firmness of the ground had much to do with the value of it? And by the building will give way to a new one to meet the future modern demands; but the ground will be there, unchanged.

A house built on sand will not withstand the floods; which is another way of saying that no logic, however keen of itself, premised on falsehood, will last. All human reasoning must assume something as a starting point. If what is assumed is true and the reasoning logical, the result will be truth; but beware of artificial foundations cleverly concealing unstable ground beneath; for, no matter how well devised the superstructure and how sound the walls, it must inevitably collapse under unusual stress.

We are different in our ways and environments from our forefathers, and we must rebuild much of our thought structures to suit the demands of the times; but there is no reason to change the sound foundations on which the ages have builded. Because a building is old and out-of-date is no sign that the real estate under it is not valuable. Those, who would cling to the old habits of thought, cannot expect to hold a following today; and those, who would abandon the truth, because the times have changed, are blind leaders of the blind.

Give us books and sermons that provoke thought; music that inspires pure emotions; art that stimulates imagination, and time for meditation. These cultivate individuality and keep the mental functions in normal condition. Five minutes a day devoted to rational literature will save a man from the "isms" and "ies" of the moment; but "rational" doesn't comprehend popular pseudoscientific works, whose chief bid for attention is that they are "up-to-date." They are out of date before one has time to read them.

Let the fads, fancies and fallacies rise and fall, while we maintain a permanent foundation on the fundamental, time tried truths, and build that which will be of practicable service in our time, rather than merely satisfy the glance of a careless eye.

mission several days until repairs are made. Passengers and baggage will be transferred on the tugboat to and from Brookport, while freight trains will be compelled to make a detour via Cairo.

The sunken barges belonging to the ferry company are valued at between $3,000 and $5,000. The storm was one of the most treacherous that rivermen have experienced. The breaking away of craft is attributed to the rising stream more than to the wind velocity.

The wharf and steamboats moored near it were not damaged although precautions were taken to prevent them from breaking away.

Traffic Interfered With.

Traffic on both the Illinois Central and the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroads was interfered with by the heavy rains. On the Illinois Central railroad it was worst. Fast passenger and mail train No. 103, due in Paducah at 3:52 o'clock this morning from Louisville, had not arrived this afternoon, owing to being impossible to cross the trestle at Little Cypress. Trains on the Illinois Central from the west and south arrived slightly behind time. The crews report heavy rains but little damage is reported.

Heavy rains between Iola and Ben ton delayed the Memphis train of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad till nearly afternoon. The ballast of the track was washed away, but workmen were sent out early to repair the damage. No serious damage was reported to the trestles.

At Little Cypress, Little Cypress, Ky., April 16. (Special to Commonwealth Life Insurance Co.)—Little Cypress was the center of a deluge of rain last night, and today water is over many acres of land. Little Cypress creek is out of its banks, and it is almost impossible to travel over the roads.

One concrete abutment of the Illinois Central trestle over Little Cypress creek is broken, letting down the bridge, and traffic is stopped. Workmen of the railroad began repair work this morning, but it will hardly be possible for trains to cross before tonight or tomorrow. The trestle is 100 feet long. The heavy concrete abutment cracked and gave way early this morning under the strain of the water.

of the Mayfield road, said that he lost at least 400 panes. Damage to the fruit trees was heavy, as to the leaves and blossoms and young fruit was knocked off by the hail.

Tobacco beds also suffered, and farmers report that the canvas over the beds was ripped into shreds by the hail stones. The hail fell in such quantities that it looked like midwinter until the hail stones were melted.

At Melber the rainfall was heavy and hail fell, but no serious damage is reported. The Mayfield creek is over the road, but the bridge is in place and is being crossed.

Damage on River.

Damage to the extent of several thousand dollars was done to river craft and property about 4 o'clock this morning during a heavy wind storm that threatened all boats in the local harbor for a short time.

The heaviest loss was sustained by the Paducah & Illinois Ferry company and is estimated at between $3,000 and $5,000. Several runaway barges were carried swiftly downstream and crashed into the cradles of the Illinois Central railroad incline at the foot of Campbell street, the heaviest loss was sustained by the Paducah & Illinois Ferry company and is estimated at between $3,000 and $5,000. IS M'CREARY'S

IF HE WANTS IT, SAYS JUDGE W.
H. YOST.

Johnson Sentiment is Dying Out.—
Says O'Rear Will Not Be the Republican Candidate.

Judge William H. Yost, of Madisonville, arrived in the city this morning and is stopping at the Rudd House.

Judge Yost is here on legal business, having two or three important cases in circuit court.

When asked as to what he thought of the approaching gubernatorial race he said that the publication of the contemplated announcement of Senator James B. McCreary was certainly very gratifying to the Democrats in Western Kentucky, and that he believed that if McCreary did formally announce he would receive the nomination. Judge Yost said that some time ago there was a prevailing sentiment for Ben Johnson but that this has begun to die out and for the past days he has heard many expressions from well known politicians declaring themselves for McCreary. Judge Yost also stated that a friend who was in Frankfort last week had informed him that ex-Governor Beckham had stated that he would support McCreary.

Judge Yost says that he does not believe that Judge O'Rear will get the Republican nomination, as he will have all the big corporations lined up against him because they recognize him as a terror to their schemes.

The skin is provided with countless pores and glands, through which an evaporation is going on continually, day and night. This is Nature's method of regulating the temperature of our bodies, and preserving the natural appearance of the skin. These pores and glands are connected with tiny veins and arteries through which they receive from the blood the necessary nourishment and strength to preserve their healthy condition.

Just as long as the blood remains pure the skin will be free from eruptions, but when the blood becomes affected with acids and humors its nourishing and healthful properties are lost, and its acrid, humor-laden condition causes inflammation of the delicate tissues and fibres of the pores and glands, and the effect is shown in Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Rashes, etc.

The humors and acids get into the blood through a deranged and inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty is to collect and expel the refuse matters of the body fail to properly do their work, and a surplus amount of waste matter is left in the system to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the blood. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are valuable only for what ability they possess to keep the skin clean, allay itching and temporarily reduce inflammation. They cannot cure skin trouble because they do not reach the skin.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character and kind because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and removes the acids and humors that are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood and completely cures Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Rashes, and every variety of skin eruption and affection. When S. S. S. has driven out the humors and acids from the blood, every symptom passes away, the skin is nourished with rich, healthful blood, the tissues are relieved of all inflammation, natural evaporation again takes place and the skin becomes soft and smooth and perfect.

A general shifting of principals of the school buildings was made last night by the school board, upon the voluntary retirement of professors M. E. Ligon and A. M. Ragsdale, and the promotion of Prof. J. T. Ross to be assistant superintendent with no regular assignment. Prof. W. H. Sugg, principal of the high school and G. W. Jackson and T. D. Hibbs, principals of the colored schools, were allowed to remain as before. A. Crabb and B. O. Hinton, of the Bowling Green Normal school, were elected to the McKinley and Whittier buildings, respectively and H. L. Donovan was transferred from the Whittier school to the Franklin school at an increase; J. M. Calvin was transferred from the R. E. Lee school to the Jefferson school at an increase; Miss Emma Morgan was transferred from the McKinley school to the R. E. Lee school at an increase; Prof. Guy Whitehead, of the Washington school, was promoted to be principal of the Longfellow school, vice Professor Ragsdale, Prof. Ligon was principal of the Franklin school. He will attend Columbia college and work for degree next year. The board on recommendation of the committee on teachers and course of study adopted the following resolutions: Resolved, that we, the committee on teachers and course of study and officials of the schools, regret that M. E. Ligon, principal of the Franklin school declines re-election as principal. It is our desire to retain him and we regret to lose him from our schools. In the two years that he has served as principal he has proven himself a man of superior worth. The board of Professor Ragsdale a recommendation.

Prof. J. T. Ross, who has been in the public school 57 years, was relieved of the arduous routine of responsibilities of the principalship of the big Jefferson school, because the board felt it an imposition on the strength of a man of his years, and in recognition of his long and faithful service he was given a roving commission under direction of the superintendent, at an annual salary, instead of nine months.

More Boys Than Girls.

Superintendent Carnagey read his reports for February and March, indicating a growth in the schools. He brought out the unusual fact that during March there were more white boys than white girls in the schools; boys 1,192, girls 1,183. There were 403 colored girls and 329 colored boys. The gain attendance over February was 85 and over any previous March 162. Superintendent Carnagey also read a full report of the meeting school men at Indianapolis, which was received and filed.

Colored Schools.

He presented a petition from the pupils of the Lincoln (colored) high school for a physical and chemical laboratory. These children have raised among their own people $120.55 and ask the board for $100 to supplement the sum, together with the conversion of part of the second floor hall into a laboratory table, a gas attachment and a drain, as there is water in the room and the schools have the necessary furniture. Trustee Pettit, for the library and laboratory committee, recommended immediate installation of the laboratory would be an incentive to the return

The Week In Society.

UNDER THE DOGWOOD BOUGHS.

Betty sang, arch Lady Betty—
All in a gown of blue—
A song of birds and springtime gladness,
And her eyes' soft hue
Matched her lovely gown of blue.

The song was sweet, but Lady Betty,
Sweeter far were you,
With your brown hair softly waving (Neath your hat with bow of blue,
Such a bonny Betty you!

Behind, above her, as she stood there,
Shone the whole song through,
Soft with radiance in showers
From boughs of snowy dogwood flowers,
'Gainst a wall of deeper blue.

Betty thought she was but singing,
As she came to do;
But while the tones came gladly ringing,
Eyes were drinking in her fairness,
She was painting pictures, too.

Lovely pictures of the springtime,
So much beauty, art and grace!
By the time the song was finished Hearts had answered to the magic—Springtime glory lit each face,
